Curtailing Expenses. A new set of rules is to be enforced at the fire department. Hereafter any city em-ploye who out of patriotism or a desire for fees aids the firemen will not receive any

Slot Machines Must Go

The school board held a warm session on Monday night. Kansas City wanted an Independence teacher and offered to give an increased salary. The board held that "a contract was a contract," but it turned out that no contract had been made. For some time past the Independence school board has complained of Kansas Citylans wanting to get Independence teachers.

wanting to get Independence teachers. Among them was Miss Stoll. The result of the meeting was that Miss Stoll's salary went up ten points and she was retained. Other teachers would like to have a raise

Will Close To-day.

Independence News Notes.

J. W. Peterson and wife left last even-ing for Lamoni, Ia.

T. F. McAfee and family, who resided on West Lexington street, have moved to To-peka, where Mr. McAfee will engage in the manufacture of woolen goods.

Marriage licenses were issued yesterday to Edmon Highill and Annie Shrank and C. C. Stayton and Bertha Webb. Both couples are from Grain Valley.

Mrs. J. N. Southern, who has been visiting in this city for several days, has re-turned to her home in Macon county. M. M. Langhorne left yesterday for Ne-vada, Mo., with G. Cripen, an insane per-

M. G. Wood entertained his Sunday school class Tuesday evening at his home on North Pleasant street. Mrs. C. Jackson and Miss Ella Henley left yesterday for Clinton, Mo., where they will attend a meeting of a Methodist so-ciety.

W. V. Clawson, G. H. Horton and H. N.

-Minor News Items.

A short time ago the retail clerks of this he greater portion of them now belong.

The ostensible purpose of the organization committees were appointed to wait upon the merchants. Nearly all agreed to the requests of the clerks, only a few holding and closed at the regulation hour. One business man on Delaware street refused to and closed at the regulation hour. One business man on Delaware street refused to accede to the request, telling the clerks that he could manage his own affairs without their assistance. He, however, permitted his working force, outside members of his own family, to go home at 6 o'clock. Tuesday night a committee of the union appeared in front of the store and instituted a boycott and tried to dissuade customers from entering, and in some instances they were successful. The clerks stood manfully to their station until the proprietor closed at 10 p. m., and while in possession of the sidewalk the clerks advised every passerby that it was a "scab house." The proprietor stated yesterday, to a Journal representative, that if all merchants would close, in good faith, he would do likewise, the said that while the others pretended to close, that many of them did not do so. They would shut the front door, and if a customer came he would be ushered in through a side door and could purchase all he wished. The clerks were out again, forty strong, last night, and declare that they will bring the merchant to time.

Was Harshly Treated.

titles him to a severance of the marriag

Doing Good Work.

The candidates on the Republican ticket and their friends are doing effective work in their still hunt for votes, and encouraging reports are coming in from all portions of the county. The people are thortoughly disgusted with the state administration and are determined to give the ringsters a lesson. Dissension is beginning to show itself in the Democratic ranks, and the prospects are for a big split. There is great opposition to the faction known as the "Atwood ring," which embraces the police board and a few others. They succeeded in naming a ticket which is decidedly objectionable to the majority of the party, who will repudiate the ticket on election day. The Populists have no ticket of their own, and declare that they will vote against the administration. They feel very bitter at the way in which they have been treated.

Marriage Bells.

Three Court Marriages.

of two weeks' duration.

Some of these have since complied and the end is fot yet.

for such service. The cause of this was to the fact that the name of City At-

KANSAS CITY, KAS.

NOTICE.

The Kansas City, Kas., Branch Office of The Journal has removed from the Husted building to 641 Minnesota avenue. Telephone west 23.

Beware!

I hereby serve notice on the public that will no longer be responsible for any debt certracted by my wife, Anna C. Herman son. JOHN C. HERMANSON.

The only place in Kansas City, Kas.
Genuine Keeley Remedies and Treatment for Alcohol and Narcotic Addictions are administered. Address as above.

ANDERSON WILL WIN

WILL BE ELECTED COMMISSIONER FROM FIRST DISTRICT.

HE PROVED LABOR'S FRIEND.

LABORING MEN WILE NOW STAND BY HIM TO A MAN.

During the Great A. R. U. Strike He Carried Scores of Strikers on His Books and Saved Many of Them From Actual Storvation.

At the beginning of the campaign there was a little doubt as to the election of Mr. John W. Anderson, the Republican candi-date for commissioner from the First district. This doubt was not due to any fault on the part of the gentleman whom the Republicans nominated for the office, as a better man could not have been found had the country been searched over and over again. In this district the fusionists have a majority of about 400 votes for the Republicans to overcome, and, as stated above, there was at first a little doubt as to the election of Mr. Anderson.

There is no longer any reason for a doubt. There is no ground for the slightest suspicion that he will not land a victor on the 2nd day of next month, as will every man who holds a nomination on the Repub-Hean ticket. The First commissioner district is largely composed of workingmen, and they know which candidate is their friend, and if their friend happens to differ in politics with them, he is still appreciated as a friend, nevertheless.

During the big A. R. U. strike, which threw so many workingmen out of employment in Argentine, J. W. Anderson, who now aspires to the office of county commissioner from his district on the Repubmissioner from his district on the Republican ticket, then operated a grocery establishment in Argentine. He is still engaged in the same business. Many of the strikers ran out of money and some of them actually went hungry. Then a friend to the strikers was appreciated. Mr. Anderson carried these men on his books as if they had work and money until he had got behind with the wholesale house which supplied him with stock to the tune of $2.00. A member of that wholesale firm stated to a reporter for The Journal yesterday that his firm called Mr. Anderson's attention to his indebtedness and informed him that he would have to cease letting his goods out on credit or his credit with the goods out on credit or his credit with the house would be cut off. To this Mr. Ander-son replied that he had been trusting the strikers for provisions and frankly told the manager of the wholesale house that if the men who were out on a strike were not good for what they got from him be was the loser and not any wholesale dealer.

The laboring people of the First district are not a set of ingrates and this alone is ufficient to assure Mr. Anderson's election by a big majority.

GAMBLERS WERE RAIDED.

Given an Opportunity to Demonstrate the Unconstitutionality of the

The proprietors of the poolroom at No 8 Ewing street opened the establishment vesterday for business, apparently determined to test the constitutionality of the Cubbison gambling law. As soon as they began to receive bets a squad of police composed of Sergeant Clark, Detectives Mackey and Walsh and Officers Mansell and Spangler, detailed for the especial purpose, raided the room and arrested live men, all employed in carrying on the illegal business. They were taken to No. 2 police station and detained until Detective detained until Mackey could make a complaint against them before Judge Pfost of the North side city court and secure a warrant for their

The five prisoners gave their names a

The five prisoners gave their names as Robert Gray, John Townsley, Harry Boardman, Al Wilkinson and Heury Thompson. Detective Mackey lost no time in securing the warrants and the five prisoners were taken before Judge Pfost and arraigned. They gave bend in the sum of $500 each for their appearance in court for a preliminary hearing.

It was about 4 o'clock before the pool-room men began to post the odds and receive bets. Detectives Mackey and Walsh were in the room all the time, and as soon as they secured enough evidence to make a good case the signal was siven for the men in uniform, and the raid was made. The spectators did not become alarmed over the appearance of the police, as they had been previously assured that they would not be relested. This was true. None of the frequenters was placed under arrest, but all the employes found back of the counters were taken into custody. The telegraph instrument and all of the poolroom paraphernalla, including all of the tickets that had been cashed, were taken along with the prisoners, and will be introduced in evidence.

It is thought that the authorities have a

It is thought that the authorities have It is thought that the authorities have a positive case against the gamblers, and if they escape punishment they will surely have to prove the Cubbison law unconstitutional. Thomas Carey, who is thought to be the proprietor of the establishment, when asked if he would open for business to-day, replied that he could not say, as he was only one member of a syndicate or gamblers who proposed to test the law. It is understood that they will reopen to-day, and if they do the police will probably raid them again. The authorities will make them prove the law unconstitutional before the poolroom men do any gambling.

SAID NEVER A WORD.

sergeant Tarpley Gets Mad Until He Grasps the Fact That His Prixoner is a Deaf Mute.

oner is a Deaf Mute.

Officer Fink arrested H. D. Mandeville, a deaf mute, who has been rooming over Brown's plumbing establishment on Minnesota avenue, on a warrent sworn out by Brown, charaing Mandeville with threatening to assult him with a brick. The prisoner was taken before Sericant Tarpley at headquarters and as Officer Fink was in great haste to get back on his beat he simply turned over the prisoner, handed the sergeant the warrant and departed from the station.

As the name of the mute was not known at the time the warrant was issued it was made out for John Doe.

"What is your name?" inquired the sergeant with a vacant stare.

"Tell me your name?" commanded the afficer at the desk, his ire fast climbing up to the summer heat mark. But the mute spoke not.

"What in the name of John Leedy is "What in the name of John Leedy is the matter with this fellow?" fairly shouted the matter with this fellow?' fairly shouted the much worried sergeant, as he called in an officer who was tanding in the hall. By this time the man in charge of the station was thoroughly indignant, as he had been on the force for many years and this was the first thime that a prisoner absolutely refused to talk at all. The unfortunate refused to talk at all. The unfortunate who will conduct the revival, arrived in the principal battles fought west of the Mississippi. They were mustered in at Mayes-to-leave the first threshyterian church with an attendance of about 1.00. Major Cole, who will conduct the revival, arrived in the wondering if there was anything wrong with the officer's head.

The mute, who is a good looking young man, and was well dressed, became uneasy, fearing that the strange actions of the officers might be the war dance that precedes the execution. He seized a piece of paper and with a lead pencil began writing. He asked the charge upon which he was arrested.

ing. He asked the charge upon which he was arrested.

The officer finally grasped the situation and an Interesting pencil and paper conversation took place between them. The mute explained the trouble which had taken place between himself and Brown and Sergeant Tarpley allowed him to return home on his promise to be at police court this morning when the case will be called for trial. The prisoner will not plead his own case.

FOR SALE--SOME GRUB.

How Messrs. Toothaker, Pfost and King Happen to Have It on Hand for Jerry Botkin.

King Happen to Have It on Hand for Jerry Botkin.

The Pops of Kansas City, Kas., are in trouble again. They are always in trouble. It is a normal condition with them. Last week they appealed to the state committee to send some big guns here to help out and got beautifully snubbed, with the assurance that everybody was engaged for every day till election. But on Tuesday Secretary Tipton wired the local committee that one of Congressman Botkin's meetings was off and the Pops of Wyandotte county could have him second-hand for Wednesday evening. Would they have him under the circumstances? Would they? What wouldn't the Pops of Wyandotte county take? And so bills and banners were hastily prepared calling a big meeting at Armory hall last evening for Congressman-at-Large Jerry Botkin.

Now, Botkin is congressman for the whole state of Kansas. So the local Pops regarded him as about as big a gun as all the other seven congressmen combined.

The leaders of the party vied with each other in preparing for the event. W. H. Toothaker, superintendent of the Institution for the Blind, had all the force at work puttling the house in order, preparing a banquet and putting the best apparel on the eiderdown bed reserved for the most faithful; Judge Prost had a force at work all day decorating the judicial mansion and preparing the richest viands; Judge King en ployed a new French chef and gave him instructions to spare neither work normoney in preparing a feast that would do honor to royalty. But, alas! Quarles is still chief of police. He did as he always does when greatness of Populist persuasion comes to town. The picked men of the force were detailed to watch for Jerry. They saw him first. On the double quick he was hustled off to the city hall and deposited on the bosom of the chief, who waited his coming. Bid they get him away from the chief? Well, hardly. Not even to speak to him unless in the presence of the boss. Toothaker, Pfost and King now have a large and varied assortment of well-cooked provender which they are ten

EQUAL SUFFRAGISTS MEET.

Mrs. Jennie Maher Re-elected President-An Interesting Programme Was Rendered.

Was Rendered.

The annual meeting of the Equal Suffrage Association of this county was held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Jennie Maher, president of the association, on Armstrong avenue. The meeting was largely attended and was one of much interest. The parlors of the president's home were beautifully decorated with yellow cut flowers, yellow ribbons, yellow banners, and, in fact, all the decorations were more or less yellow, as this is the suffrage color. Mrs. Maher called the meeting to order promptly at 2 o'clock, and then delivered her annual address. She spoke of the progress of the suffragists in Kansas City, Kas, and urged all believers in women's rights to fight with a determination to win, as the day of victory was near at hand. At the conclusion of her address she surrendered the office of president, which she has held for four consecutive years. The annual election of officers was then taken up. Mrs. Maher was re-elected president and accepted the office again under protest. The following other officers were chosen: Mrs. Bessy Warrey, vice president; Mrs. Belle Rowland, secretary; Mrs. Stella Baker, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Hattie Reichnecker, treasurer.

Mrs. Warrey rendered a vocal solo.

Rowland, secretary; Mrs. Stella Baker, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Hattie Reichnecker, treasurer.

Mrs. Warrey rendered a vocal solo,
"Chimes of Home," accompanied on the plano by Miss Nettie Maher, Mrs. Charlotte Perkins-Stetson's famous poem, "Women Don't Want It," was read by one of the members. Then the suffragists discussed the present local campaign, and a motion to visit the verious candidates and get their views on the suffrage question prevailed. This it would appear will be a useless task, as it is reasonable to presume that every candidate is in favor of women's rights at the present stage of the game—the election only two weeks off.
The meeting closed with a vocal solo by Mrs. Lizzle Hauwott, entitled, "Cast Aside." The song had no reference whatever to the suffrage cause.

MILLER WON'T SIGN.

Insists That Proceedings to Ous Chief Quarles Should Be Begun by Attorney General.

County Attorney Miller will not sign the petition in ouster prepared by Attorney Ben S. Henderson against Chief of Police Guarles unless instructed to by the at-torney general. The following is a copy of a letter sent Attorney General Boyle by County Attorney Miller, which, Mr. Miller claims, will show the people of Kan-sas City, Kas., the stand he takes in the matter: C. Boyle, Attorney General, Topeka, Kes.

"Dear Sir:—Herein you will find a copy of a petition which Mr. Ben S. Henderson, of this city, wants me to file. The netition explains itself. I think cases of this character ought to be instituted through you as attorney general of the state of Kansas. In your name, such a suit ought to be instituted, as I look at it. If, however, you don't want to do so and will make a request of me to do so, then, acting on that request, I will act. If, after investigation, you do not want to request me to do the same, but want to act yourself, then, it you have no objections. I will join with you and we will see what there is in the charges as alleged in the petition. Hoping to receive an early reply, I am, very respectfully, "SAMUEL C. MILLER, "County Attorney

THOMAS O'LEARY DEAD.

Was a Pioneer Business Man and Had Lived in This City for Many Years.

Many Years.

Thomas O'Leary, proprietor of the O'Leary house on Central avenue, died yesterday from a complication of diseases. Mr. O'Leary was an old resident of the city, having been one of the pioneer business men of that part of the consolidated cities located east of the Kaw river.

He leaves six daughters: Mrs. James Leary, Mrs. J. A. Beil, Mrs. Nat E. Elliott, Mrs. J. Dugan, and Misses Colin and Clara O'Leary, Mr. O'Leary was quite prosperous, and leaves a large estate. He was 50 years old. The funeral services will be beid at Annunciation church Friday morning at 9 o'clock. Burial will be in Mount St. Mary's cemetery.

A DOUBLE WEDDING.

Miss Mattle Cooper Becomes Mrs. Robert Cochran and Miss Katie Cochran Weds Randall Cooper. James F. Cochran was united in marriage James F. Cochran was united in marriage last evening to Miss Mattle Cooper at the tome of the groom's father. Robert Cochran. A few moments later, in the same decorated parlors and before the same guests, Mr. Randall Cooper, brother of the bride, was united in the bonds of matrimony to Miss Katle Cochran, sister of the groom. It was a beautiful double wedding and one long to be remembered by those who witnessed the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Mr. Edwin Locke, justor of the Highland Park Methodist church. Cochran home was beautifully deco-

The Cochran home was beautifully deco-rated for the occasion, and the parlors were crowded with friends of the contracting parties. After the wedding ceremonies were performed a wedding supper was served. The two happy couples left on a late train for the East, where they will regend a short honeymoon. They will make their future homes in this city.

Copeland-Driggs.

Copeland-Driggs.

Miss Clara Copeland and Ben Driggs, two well known young people of this city, were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents on Nebraska avenue yesterday morning at 8 o'clock. The ceremony was witnessed by a large number of the friends of the contracting parties.

The newly married couple were immediately driven to the union depot where they boarded a train for the East. Before the bride and groom entered the cab some of the guests decorated it with old shoes and "rice" made with chalk in the hands of an artist. The rig was the object of much laughter as it passed along the avenue.

city yesterday morning, and spent the day visiting with friends.

Everybody seemed glad to see him last night, and the opening meeting was quite successful. When Major Cole was here before he secured hundreds of conversions, and among his converts were the most prominent men in the city. Some of them have returned to their former habits, but many have stuck fast. The buildings and telephone poles are covered with little 'stickers' hearing this inscription, 'Get Right With God.' This is one way that the public may know that Major Cole is in the city, as it is his manner of advertising his revivals. The meeting will continue nightly for an indefinite length of time.

Mrs. Anna Williams Sues for Divorce. Mrs. Anna Williams Sues for Divorce.

Anna Williams brought suit in the district court yesterday against George Williams for divorce. They were married twelve years ago and lived happily for a few years, when the defendant, so it is claimed, lost all desire to work, and by virtue of his idleness the plaintiff was compelled to work to provide herself and their children with the necessaries of life. Some time ago the defendant abandoned her, and she now seeks a legal separation and the custody of their minor children.

Cashler Taylor Wants a New Trial. A motion for an arrest of judgment was filed yesterday by the attorneys for George A Taylor, convicted on Monday of re-ceiving deposits when the Argentine bank was known to be insolvent. A motion for a rew trial was also filed in the afternoon and will be heard by Judge Alden on Sat-uroay.

Wyandotte Central League.

The Wyandotte Central League will hold a meeting to-night at Windom's church, No. 217 North James street. The following programme has been arranged for the occasion: Song, by league; address, D. K. Echols; address, M. Tucker; solo, N. Singletary; address, B. S. Smith; address, F. A. Turner; music, quartette.

A Fall Results in Lockjaw. John Boddington, son of J. C. Boddington, a farmer living on the Reidy road, was thrown from a wagon attached to a team of runaway horses on Wednesday and badly bruised. Lockjaw has developed and the lad is in a precarlous condition.

Cash Discount on Conl.

On all coal purchased of us, if cash ac-companies the order, we will pay a dis-count of 3 ner cent. WYANDOTTE COAL & LIME CO., 553 Minnesota Avenue.

METROPOLIS MISCELLANY.

The Twilight Circle Club will give a hay-seed ball to-morrow night at Royal Arca-num hall, 525 Minnesota avenue. Thomas Donohue, formerly of the dis-trict clerk's office, has been appointed as assistant in the county clerk's office during election month. election month.

election month.

Attorney W. A. Snook, the well known Populist inwyer, has been appointed justice of the peace to fill the office vacated by the resignation of Dow McClain.

The jury in the Proctor damage suit against the Metropolitan Street Railway Company returned a verdict in favor of the company. Proctor sued for $20,000. The Lafayette Mission Union will close this evening with a sermon by Rev. Mr. Dobbyns. Yesterday the entire day was given over to the reading of mission pa-pers. To-day the same rule will be fol-lowed. Rev. Mr. Mitchell preached last night

Jay Harshberger, formerly of this city, but now engaged in the horseracing business at the St. Louis and Harlem tracks, it spending a few days with friends and relatives here.

relatives here.

The funeral of Thomas O'Leary will take place Friday morning at 9 o'clock from the Annunciation church. Interment at Mount St. Mary's cemetery. All friends of the family invited.

St. Mary's cemetery. All friends of the family invited.

Charles Crane fell off the roof of a building at the corner of Flith and Central streets yesterday morning and received internal injuries. He was taken to his home on Wood avenue in the patrol wason.

Rosa Sterrett was fined $25 in police court yesterday morning on the charge of steading $25 from a stranger. The 'victim' met Rosa on the street and became infatuated with her on sight. They became pretty well acquainted and when he started to take a train for his rural home he discovered that he was $25 loser.

The funeral of Albert Younger, brother to Press Younger, of the local police force, took place yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Metropolitan Baptist church. The services were conducted under the austral of the local police. services were conducted under the auspieces of Pride of the West lodge No. 53 (colored), A. F. and A. M.

ARMOURDALE.

Howard Way has gone to Nevada, Mo. on a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dalton, of Forest street, have a baby daughter. Mrs. Sandy, of Greystone heights, died last evening at 7:15, at her home. Mrs. J. T. McConnell, of Pereturned last evening from New The young child of Mr. and Mrs. Denis of Valley street, is ill with malarial fever The ladies of the G. A. R. will meet at the home of Mrs. Higman, 45 Valley street, this afternoon. this afternoon.

R. Fleming, the father of Mrs. Dr. Nasan

s seriously ill at his home, corner Osage evenue and Packard street. Miss Nellie McGee and Thomas Collins will be married at their home on Scott avenue next Wednesday morning. Mrs. Williams, wife of Charles Williams, whose body was found near the Kaw river Tuesday, arrived from Sibley, Mo., Wednesday.

Leave all news items and complaints at Lieninger's book store, 595 Kansas avenue, or at O. Q. Claffin's drug store, 823 Osage

F. Vantresse, of 829 Mill street, was pleas-antly surprised by a number of friends Tuesday evening. The occasion being his birthday. birthday.

George Parkhurst, who lives on Miami avenue, and works at the Oxley Cooperage Company, was truck on the head Tuesday by a pulley breaking and severely injured.

A number of tramps set fire to a large pile of driftwood piled up at the north ap-proach of the Fifth street bridge. The fire was put out before the bridge was dam-The Intermediate Society of the Christian h will give a carpet-rag social at the of Mrs. E. E. Cash, at the corner of e avenue and Packard street, Tuesday Lucille avenue and P evening, October 26.

evening. October 26.

F. Lockert, A. Fleck, Robert Brant and Jerry Wilderman left for Parson, Kas., Wednesday evening to attend the grand lodge meeting of the Select Knights of the Legion of A. O. U. W..

The following is the programme of the musicale to be given at Mrs. J. L. Simpson's, on Seventh street, by the ladies of the Presbyterian church Friday evening: Instrumental duet, "Spring," Velma Snell and Mae Simpson. ind Mae Simpson. Vocal solo, "Leonora," Mae Heddrick. Recitation, "Bill Smith," Genevria Wag-

Was Harshly Treated.

In the district court yesterday Michael Lawless instituted divorce proceedings against his wife, Katie Lawless, to whom he was married November 25, 1891. He states in his petition that he has been a resident of Leavenworth for twenty-seven years, and makes the usual allegations as to having conducted himself as a loving husband. He charges that his wife has not kept her part of the marriage contract, and has been guilty of extreme crucity and neglect of duty. As an instance, he mentions that she repeatedly assaulted and struck him, and called him names too vile to place upon the court records. He charges that from the time of their marriage she neglected and refused to care for his house, or sustain the marital relations, compelling him to seek solace in other company. And, to cap the climax, she abandoned him in November, 1894, and is still absent. These grounds, he thinks, entitles him to a severance of the marriage oner. Vocal duet, "Till We Meet Again," Car-ie and Edna Tincher. Instrumental solo, "La Madonna," Mae Simpson.
Song, "The Owl," six little girls, Instrumental solo, "Sparkling Stream, elma Snell. Recitation, "The Weary Visitor," Hettic Richardson. Instrumental solo, "The Charm of Spring," Mattle McConnell. Vocal duct, "Come, Join the Dance," Tincher sisters, ARGENTINE.

The new Santa Fe roundhouse is nearing completion. To-day is smelter pay day, St. John's church choir will give a social to-night at the church hall Chief of Police Borrett, of Swift & Co., was in the city on business yesterday. Lemen Bros.' show has returned to Ar-gentine and gone into winter quarters. Walter Roberts was fined 31 and costs in police court yesterday for being drunk.
O. R. McLeod, fusion candidate for coroner, was over shaking hands with the peo-Engineer Helferstay has been called Martinsburg, Va., by the death of

B. F. Marshel and Rev. Mr. C. W. Backus have returned from the meeting of the Presbyterian synod at Emporia. The ladies of the Christian Union church will give a cake and coffee social to-night in the Brown & Reichert building, on Strong avenue.

Mrs. Scott. mother of the Scott Bros., of the Metropolitan dry goods store, has re-moved from Kansas City, Mo., to Argen-tine, and is occupying the second story of the Argentine Bank building.

INDEPENDENCE.

Iwenty-five Veterans Who Wore the Gray During the Civil War Meet in Reunion.

Wedding bells will ring this evening for the marriage of Mr. Edward L. Carney and Miss Mary Fitzwilliam, which will take place at the residence of the bride's mother on Seneca street at 7.30 p. m. The happy couple have resided in this city since child-hood and have a host of friends. Mr. Carney is the eldest son of Kansas' war governor. Thomas L. Carney, and has occupied several public positions of trust in the city and county. The bride is the daughter of the late Judge T. P. Fitzwilliam, and a sister of Judge Fitzwilliam, She is a charming, educated lady, and prominent in society circles. The ceremony will be performed by Rev, Dr. Page, of the Presbyterian church, and after a wedding supper the couple will leave for an Eastern trip of two weeks' duration. Twenty-five of the members of Company A, Sixteenth Missouri infantry, ex-Confederates, gathered yesterday at a reunion held at the home of the lieutenant, J. S. Probate Judge Hawn did a wholesale business yesterday and issued the following marriage licenses: Edward L. Carney and Mary Fitzwilliam: Foster W. Woods and Alice Aubrey: Burdette Gress and Edith E. Knox: William Balz and Bertha N. Grooms. The last three couples were married in open court, and with the last couple ganized under General Thomas Hindman into infantry.

This company participated in the historic battle of Lone Jack under Colonel Vard Cockerell, one of the hardest fought engagements on Missouri soil. Yesterday, teles of this and other battles were retold. The company also fought in the battle of Prairie Grove, and at Hallerman, where they went into the engagement with sixty-two men, one-third of whom filled Southern graves. The Jenkins Ferry, Pleasant Hill and Little Rock battles, with many skirmishes, engaged them before the surrender to General Buckner took place at Skreveport, June 23, 1864. Sixty of the members of the company are still living.

The following answered to roll cail yesterday; J. S. Wallace, J. F. Harris, C. B. Leetspeich, T. W. Cassell, Irwin Parker, J. M. Davenport, M. A. Groom, J. W. Wood, E. M. Sellers, J. E. Bradshaw, S. J. K. Herrell, C. W. Thompson, T. F. Maxwell, G. P. Smith, J. W. Underwood, W. H. Kesterson, R. N. Bush, W. L. Branyon, S. M. Simpson, G. T. Kezer, T. J. Boswell, Andy J. Henley, J. D. Noland, W. S. Gray, The veterans will be dined to-day at the home of T. W. Cassell. it is their second venture upon the uncer tain sea of matrimony. This couple wer granted a decree of divorce by Judge My ers in the district court on October 9, bu have concluded to patch up their differences and try it again.

Brief Mention

Brief Mention.

Republicans should register to-day, the books close to-morrow.

Work in repairing the Third street bridge is progressing in a satisfactory manner, and it is expected that the bridge will be finished next week. The repairs are being put in by the electric railroad.

A change of time in the Missouri Pacific and Kansas City Northwestern railroads brings nearly all trains in somewhat earlier. Senator Baker has joined the Leavenworth Anglers' Association, for a few days' outing in their camp, at Langdon, Mo. George W. Findlay came over from Topeka to see Senator Baker about an Indian agency yesterday, and was much disappointed to find the senator absent.

William Barnhart, of Boling, reported to the police yesterday that a mare had been stolen from his place the preceding night.

Maggie Davis complained to Justice Bond yesterday that a colored damsel named Lizzie Quarles had broken into her house and stolen three dresses and some other clothing. A warrant was issued and placed in the hands of Constable Hilderbrandt, who found that the woman had gone to Kansas City, Kas. He took a train for that point and returned last night with his prisoner. The residence of R. L. Seymour at Boling was entered by a thief, and a gold watch belonging to the hired man stolen.

Henry B. Brown, the old veteran at the Soldiers' home who cut his throat, served during the war in Company D. Second Kentecky infantry.

The state case against G. M. Quimby, charged with disposing of mortgaged property, was dismissed in Justice Bond's ceurt by the prosecution yesterday.

The electric road is reducing its force to the winter number. due to the fact that the name of City At-torney Leach appears on the expense ac-count of the fire department, as having at-tended a fire. The watchman will also be scaled down hereafter. Heretofore, $1 was paid for the watchman to stay at the de-partment while the boys were out on a run, it was the same price for a false alarm. Hereafter there will be no extra help allowed the department unless by consent of the mayor or council.

he winter number. The city officials have commenced a war on the slot machines. Yesterday City At-torney Leach notified proprietors of slot machines to stop their use and at noon the wheels quit spinning and signs announcing The city impounder captured five cows on the North Esplanade yesterday and placed them in the pound.

Kabbi Schulman, of Kansas City, cam up last night and united in marriage Mr Solomou Greenbaum. of Kirksville, Mo. and Miss Essie Samish, of this city.

wheels duit spinning and signs amounting they were not running were put up. The crusade was due to the fact that the busi-ness proved so lucrative that new ma-chines were being added and this form of gambling became too popular. Should an attempt be made to operate the machines arrests will surely follow. Citizens Living Between City Limits and the Blue Emphatic in Opposing Annexation.

OPPOSE THE EXTENSION.

A largely attended mass meeting of res dente and owners of property in the territery between Fairview avenue and the Big Blue river that it is proposed by the Demo cratic push to annex to Kansas City wa held last night at the corner of Independ ence and Elmwood avenues. It was at-tempted to hold the meeting in a hall, but this was found to be too small and an adjournment was taken to a vacant piece of ground, where the meeting was organized by the election of Robert L. Smith as chairman and J. B. Cecil as secretary.

Chairman Smith made a brief speech, stating the object of the meeting. He said it was desired to obtain the sentiment of the citizens who are residents of and own property in the territory that it was intended to force into Kansas City. He then introduced Colonel E. F. Rogers, who made a vigorous speech against the proposed annexation. He was followed by C. H. Kirshner. Maurice Sullivan, J. Middleton and Theodore Winningham, each of whom except Sullivan acciared against the proposition to extend the city limits on the east to the Blue river. The following resolution, offered by Mr. Winningham, was almost unanimously adopted:

"Resolved, That the city limits of Kansas City, Mo., should not be extended east of Fairview avenue, for the reason that in the territory between Fairview avenue, and the city in the contraction of the contra icurament was taken to a vacant piece of Fairview avenue, for the reason that in the territory between Fairview avenue and the territory between Fairview avenue and the Blue river are thousands of acres of cornfields, brier patches and rabbit hunting grounds, that are wholly uninhabited by human beings, and the city cannot give any benefits to said territory."

A motion inviting the members of the lewer house who favor the Blue extension to ride over the territory between that stream and Fairview avenue, with the farmers residing therein, and view the cornfields and brier patches and shoot quall and rabbits was adopted by a rising vote.

A mass meeting of citizens who favor the proposed extension of the eastern limits of the city to the Big Blue river will be held in Armory hall to-night. Colonel George P. Gross will preside.

Davis have been appointed special police by Mayor Millard. They are to serve withby Mayor Amaro. They do not bay.

The police have obtained no clue to the robbers who entered the store of Ed Taylor ten days ago. It will be remembered that $30 was taken, besides considerable flour and other groceries. The police have been having hard luck recently by the non-capture of thleves. THREE SEDALIA WEDDINGS. colorado Bank Cashier Married to the Daughter of the Superintendent of the "Katy." Sedalia, Mo., Oct. 29.-(Special.) A local THE NEWS AT LEAVENWORTH. society event to-day was the solemnization, at Calvary Episcopal church, at high noon, of the marriage of N. C. Craven, cashier of the First National bank, of Clerks' Union Boycotts a Merchantcashier of the First National bank, of Canon City, Col., and Miss Anna Maud Lyity organized a clerks' union, to which was to secure early closing, and to this end

Canon City, Col., and Miss Anna Maud Lyons, the accomplished daughter of W. B. Lyons, superintendent of the Missouri, Kansas & Texas railway. An informal reception was held this afternoon at the regidence of the bride's parents, and the bridal couple left to-night for Chicago.

Jefferson C. Davis, assistant attorney for the Cotton Belt railway, of Jackson, Mo., and Miss Elsa Morseman, a beautiful young woman of this city, were mairried this evening at the residence of the bride's mother, on Massachusetts avenue, Rev. Mr. G. F. Patterson, rector of Calvary Episcopal church, officiating. The bridal couple left to-night for St. Louis, where to-morrow they will be tendered a dinner by four former Sedallans who are now residents of St. Louis.

St. Louis.

St. Louis.

W. O. Harris, son of Judge O. M. Harris, for several years clerk in the Sedalia post-office, and Miss Mary E. Goodfellow, book-keeper for the J. A. Lamy Manufacturing Company, were united in marriage this evening at the home of the bride, Rev. Mr. J. S. Myers, pastor of the First Christian church, officiating.

LOYAL LEGION OFFICERS.

Rear Admiral Gherardi Re-elected Commander-in-Chief-New Couneil-in-Chief. Philadelphia, Oct. 20.-The thirteenth an cual convention of the officers of the milinited States was held to-day in the rooms of the Historical Society of Pennsylvania Only routine business was transacted, and ail new business was transacted, and ail new business was referred to committees, after which officers were elected as follows:

Commander-in-chief, Rear Admiral Banciett Gherardi, U. S. N.; senior vice commander-in-chief, Brigadier General Seldon Connor; junior vice commander-in-chief, Major General John R. Brooke, U. S. A.; recorder-in-chief, Brevet Lieutenant John P. Nicholson, Pennsylvania; registrar-in-chief, Brevet Major William P. Puxford, District of Columbia; treasurer-in-chief, Colonel Cornelius Cadle, of Ohio, and chapisin-in-chief, Rev. Dr. Henry Hopkins.

The new council-in-chief consists of Brevet Brigadier General J. M. Brown, Maine; Colonel Arnold Rand, Massachusetts; Brevet Major George W. Chandler, Michigan, Lieutenaut Colonel Charles W. Davis and Colonel Nelson Cole. James Snyder Mackle, of Newark, N. J., was elected companion-at-iarge. ail new business was referred to commit-at-large.

* Took a Gun and Gave Chase. Louis Dwyer, who claims Lincoln, Neb., as his home, went into Schell's grocery store at 218 West Fifth street yesterday afternoon and asked for a drink of water. He claims it was refused him, and as he went out he picked up a dozen brooms which were standing near the door. Schell saw the theft, and, seizing a revolver, started in pursuit. Dwyer started to run. Schell also broke into a run and was flourishing his revolver threateningly in the air when Detectives Boyle and Ennis dropped off of a car at Broadway and arrested Dwyer. They also disarmed Schell. Dwyer was taken to Central police station and held for investigation. The brooms were returned to Schell.

Case for the Humane Officers. Mrs. Maud Jones, of 125 West Sixth street Mrs. Maud Jones, of 125 West Sixth street, complained to the police at Central station last night of harsh treatment at the hands of Charles Moore, who lives in the Grandy block at Third street and Grand avenue. Mrs. Jones stated she was caring for the baby of one of the women living in the block. She went last night to collect her weekly stipend for the care of the infant and claims she was met at the door by Moore and roughly handled. Lieutenant Moran told Mrs. Jones to see Humane Officer Greenman to-day.

OPEN FOR BUSINESS TO-DAY! ⊚ New ⊚ .. Central Market.. ‡ FREE DELIVERY SYSTEM ‡

MURDER OF THE LITTLE GIRL.

PUBLIC INTEREST CONTINUES THOR-OUGHLY AROUSED.

Many Callers to See the Garments Found on the Little Body-Lo> vine Released-A Dressmaker's Story.

Public interest in the mystery surrounding the identity of the body of the little murdered girl found last Sunday in the Missouri river near where it receives the waters of the Blue was as great yesterday as on Tuesday, and the subject was one of general discussion. The police became fully satisfied yesterday that Cecile Lovine is alive and with her uncle in Lincoln Conter, Kas. Telegrams from Lincoln Center vesterday clearly established the fact that the child is there with Thomas Lovine. The father of the child, who was taken into custody by the sheriff at Hoxie, Kas., was eleased on orders from the chief here. He told the correspondent of The Journal there esterday that his wife knew he was going to take their child to the home of his rother. Mrs. Lovine positively declared that she did not know that her husband was going to take their child away. She said that she would not have consented to any such arrangement had she known of it in time.

All day yesterday men and women flocked to the undertaking rooms of Stewart's establishment to view the garments that had been taken from the dead body, but every one who went there, with but two exceptions, did so out of mere curiosity. Two women, who refused to give their names, said they were looking for a little girl who had disappeared. They examined the clothing critically, but declared that it did not correspond with the clothes the child they were looking for had worn when she disappeared.

A great many people in Kansas City, who efuse to believe that a mother could hav been mistaken in the identity of her own child, are still doubtful of the story that comes from Lincoln Center. One of the child, are still doubtful of the story that comes from Lincoln Center. One of the deubters is Justice Ebert, who, in discussing the case yesterday, said:

"I will be one of ten men to subscribe sufficient money to pay all the expenses of sending Mrs. Lovine to Lincoln Center, Kas., and have her identify the child there with her husband. Until the mother sees the child that is allive with her husband, and states whether it is her child or not, I cannot be convinced that she is mistaken in her identification of the murdered baby. She identifies all the clothing, and her identification of the ears on the dead baby, which are just like her own, and the crooked tooth in the baby's mouth, are points that would be absolutely unmistakable for the positive identification if the living at 1529 McGee street, reports that she saw a man leading or rather dragging his baby past her house about two weeks ago. He was going north on McGee street about 1 o'clock in the afternoon and the little girl, who seemed to be about 2½ or 3 years old, was being dragged along with him. The man was taking long steps and seemed in a big hurry. The child was crying.

"I don't want to go with you. I want

"I don't want to go with you. I want to go home to my mamma," she said.

Mrs. Wilson was looking out of an upstairs window when she saw the man and haby pass. She ran downstairs and met a colored woman, to whom she imparted the belief that the man was kidnaping the belief that the man was kidnaping the child.

"I went back in the house and locked the doors," said Mrs. Wilson yesterday, "determined on following the man and child. When I came downstairs they had gone. There was no trace of them anywhere and I guess they must have taken an east bound Fifteenth street cable car, which had just passed as I reached Fifteenth street. As near as I can fix the date now, it was fourteen days 230."

Mrs. Wilson described the baby who was with the man as wearing a faded wine colored coat which completely covered its dress. It wore black shoes and stockings and a white cap. The cap was blown off the top of the child's head and hung around its neck with the strings which were tied in front. The baby had light colored hair. The man was a rough looking fellow wearing faded jeans pants and an old straw hat with a wide brim about it and a high black band.

Mrs. Wilson went to Stewart's morgue vesterday and had a look at the cledities.

Mrs. Wilson went to Stewart's morgue yesterday and had a look at the clothing of the baby which was taken from the river bank Sunday. She failed to identify it as the clothing worn by the baby she river bank Sunday. She failed to identify it as the clothing worn by the baby she saw with the rough looking man and is now sorry she did not get a good look at the child. She is positive she could identify the man who was with the baby and thinks she could identify the baby. Coroner Bedford yesterday continued the inquest, adjourned over from Tuesday, until to day. Another continues as in the could be inquest, adjourned over from Tuesday, until to day. inquest, adjourned over from Tuesday, unili to-day. Another continuance will be had to-day unless there are further developments in the case. The police are reported working on it and they hope the wide sublicity given the case may result in someone giving a clue which will clear up the whole mystery.

eeeeeeeeeeeeee MUSIC AND THE DRAMA.

&ecccccccccccc

The Modjeska engagement at the Coates closed last night with a presentation of "Macbeth," which, like "King Lear," is so weird and remote as to be farther removed from the sympathles and sentiments of this time than are most of the other familiar Shakespearean plays, and which, likewise, is removed from the grasp of most players of our day. The employment of "Macbeth" by Modjeska, however, is both a profitable by Modjeska, however, is both a profitable and artistic expedient. Last night's audience was the largest of the engagement. This play had not been seen here since it was presented by Modjeska several years ago, when Mr. John A. Lane was the Macbeth. No one clse is giving the play at this time upon the American stage. It is not strange, therefore, that in spite of its bloody and antiquated character, its revival is distinctively popular.

Modjeska's Lady Macbeth is thoroughly interesting and commanding, though it is not one of her greatest interpretations. Neither her temperament nor her style admits of an abandoned assumption of the qualities that imbue and dominate this semi-barbaric creature. Modjeska is essentially poetle and womanly, but she is too great an artist to fall far short of complete success in anything she undertakes. Mr. Haworth's Macbeth is the best delineation of this character our stage has seen in many years. It is in conformity with the best conceptions and traditions of the character and one of the most highly creditable impersonations this clever actor has yet given us. If our young stars were the character and one of the most highly creditable impersonations this elever actor has yet given us. If our young stars were not apparently limited to the romantic or 'he society plays, Mr. Haworth's success in this role would suggest the advisability of a pretentious revival of the play by him. Mr. Malone's Macduff was by far the best of his efforts during this engage-ment. ment.

The Roberts-Martin company put on Don Caesar de Bazan" at the Ninth Street ast night and will continue this bill the remainder of the week. The version emlast night and will continue this bill the remainder of the week. The version employed differs in some respects from that generally used, but it is melodramatically effective in the principal points of departure. The play is handsomely set and elaborately costumed. From a scenic point of view it has never before been so well presented in this city. Mr. Roberts succeeds surprisingly well with the title part, considering his limited experience in this line of characters, and his assumption, for some inexplicable reason, of a very decided but somewhat ill defined accent. Mr. Roberts should play Don Caesar in straight English, especially as his principal lacking is that of graceful suavity, a lacking that would be more easily overcome if he relieved himself of this unnecessary detraction. The company gives fairly good support throughout, special mention being due to Mrs. Vandenhoff, who plays Queen Catherine.

"Tennessee's Pardner" is delighting th audiences at the Grand this week. The play is one of the best booked for the popu-lar priced theaters this season, and is being given by an exceptionally strong company.

The Auditorium was packed to the doors again last night and many were turned away. The new venture at this theater has been the biggest surprise in the history of local theatricals. The Faust Brothers' Vaudeville Company is giving a varied and entertaining bill at the Gilliss this week.

To-night will witness the opening of the engagement at the Coates of "The Heart of Maryland," which promises to be one of the most successful and fashionable engagements of the season.

Robert Mantell's new play, "A Secret Warrant," will be presented at the Coates

BEST LINE CHICAGO ST. LOUIS

Ticket Offices:

823 Main and 1044 Union Ave.

* ELECTRIC SHOWER In CONNECTION. COLOR?

It's due to "A Turkish Bath." Brings Roses to women's cheeks. Healthful, exhilarating. Finest bath rooms for women in the city. Expert attendants. J. E. Vincent Hair and Co., Practical Wig and Toupes Makers. 1026 Main St.

* EDUCATIONAL.

THIRTY-SECOND YEAR. Toldings Commercial allege

East Wing N. Y. Life Bldg., Kansas City, Mo. Book-keeping, Short hand, Typewriting, Telegraphy, English Branches, Modern Languages, etc., at lowest rates. 80-page Catalogue free. Tel. 1174. J. F. SPALDING, A. M., Prest. Night School Just Commencing.

Sunday night and the ensuing week. It is a French romance of 1729, the principal action taking place at the court of the regent, Duc d'Orleans. Mr. Mantell is a captain of king's guards, handsome and daring, a typical De Mauprat. Of course, he is in love, as all soldiers of romance are, but his favorite is the daughter of a bourgeois, and the court beauties take exception. In those days, it was rather dangerous to offend a king's mistress, and Louis de Beaumont has his hands full to protect his fiance and keep himself out of the Bastille. This, however, is work which Mr. Mantell enjoys. He is a poetical lover and a splendid soldier. Primrose & West's minstrels will begin week's engagement at the Grand opera house next Sunday afternoon. This comweek's engagement at the Grand opera house next Sunday afternoon. This company enjoyed a very large patronage at the Grand last season. Considerable change, it will be found, has been made in the organization since their last engagement here; the real colored people having been dispensed with, and only white men being employed. Exra Kendali, having deserted the legitimate stage, is to be heard in this city for the first time in monologue, in which he is said to be making a great success. Kendali was last seen here as the star in his familiar comedy called "A Pair of Kids." He does not, however, appear in black face, his "act" being done in white face, and with very little "make-up" whatever. Carroll Johnson is also a member of Primrose & West's company this year. Others in the company are Falke and Semon, musical comedians; Trovollo, novel ventriloquist; and the Schrode brothers, pantomimic acrobats. "The Zouave Patrol." William H. West's latest marching production, is a feature of the performance this season.

"Darkest Russia." that romantic drama

"Darkest Russia." that romantic drama in which Grattan Donnelly has pictured in colors of unusual brilliancy Russia as it appears to-day, will be seen at the Ninth Street theater for one week and usual matinees, commencing Sunday matinee, October 24. The spectator is carried with the action of the play far from home and set down in scenes entirely different from his accustomed haunts and surroundings. Every phase and every characteristic of Russian life is drawn up in impressive array. The drama possesses many elements of strength and is of intense interest.

The new order of things at the Auditorium has met with such favor that it has been decided to continue "The Lost Paradise" throughout the current week, changing the bill Monday night to "A Crazy Idea," which is only another name for "All the Comforts of Home," being transfered from the sources employed by Gilletto od from the sources employed by Gillette his delightful comedy. Bills will here-er be changed in the middle of the week after be changed in the middle of the week also, the change next week being "Wife for Wife." John A. Stephens' powerful drama. The same people who have en-joyed "The Lost Paradise" this week will doubtless be much interested in the dra-matic offerings of next week. The new special features will be Wood and Shepard, the strongest musical team in the business, and Van Auken, McPhee and Hill, triple har performers. These people will be very bar performers. These people will be a attractive cards, as they are essenti great in their respective lines. This we business thus far has been a complete prise to everybody except the conficmanagement. The immense theater been packed at each performance.

St. Joseph, Mo., Oct. 20.—(Special.) A riot occurred at the Irish-American hall tonight, where the Cherry Sisters, of Cedar Rapids, Ia., attempted to give a performance. The sisters became enraged over a shower of bisenits and doughnuts, and, assisted by the business manager and stage hands, attempted to chastise the offenders. A patrol wagon of police arrived and ended hostilities and the performance.

Chicago, Oct. 2h.—"A new Paiti" was the comment heard to-night at Central Music hall, the comparatively unknown songstress to whom the phrase was applied being a bright eyed, dark halred young woman with a voice of wonderful range, great power and singular purity and evenness. There was no mistaking the enthusiasm of the andience, particularly when the singer, without apparent effort, finished an "Ave Maria," the score of which touched high C. The occasion had been but little heralded and the surprise to-night was for that reason all the more unexpected. It was the first appearance in public of Miss Bessle O'Brien, a native of Springfield. III. She has been for two years in Paris. Word from time to time has reached Chleago that success more than the ordinary was being achieved by the young girl from Illinois, but there were few if any prepared for the remarkable singing heard to-night in Central Music hall.

The audience was a very large one, drawn together doubtless, in part, at least, by the novelty of a diva named O'Brien. Miss O'Brien was encored again and again and before the concert ended had sung in five different languages—French, Italian, German, Latin and English. She intends to return soon to Paris for additional culture before beginning work in grand opera.

New Vitrified Brick Plant. Chlengo, Oct. 29 .- "A new Patti" was the

New Vitrified Brick Plant.

Independence, Kas., Oct. 20.—(Special.) Funds have been advanced by home capitalists for the erection of the largest plant in the state for the manufacture of vitrior anything else." This declaration was made because a number of Shawnee county Republicans wanted him to enter the bernatorial fight.